- Contractor and does not cause any conflict of interest with any existing client of the Contractor;
- 4.2.6 it will not and will use its best endeavours to procure that none of its directors, employees, agents or representatives shall be engaged in any conduct prejudicial to the interests of GTA and the Destination including the making of any defamatory or derogatory statements;
- 4.2.7 it will keep confidential all business information provided to it or which comes to its attention as a result of this Agreement and shall not (without the prior written consent of GTA) at any time disclose the information to any third party or use such information in a manner detrimental to the reputation, image or goodwill of GTA or the Destination;
- 4.2.8 it will at all times during the term of this Agreement comply with the requirements of applicable public relations, promotions and advertising standards and applicable laws including, without limitation, any applicable regulations or codes of practice.

5 Limitation of liability and Indemnification

- 5.1 Neither party shall be liable to the other in contract, tort (including negligence) or otherwise for any direct or indirect loss of profits, business or anticipated savings, or for any indirect or consequential loss or damage whatsoever. Contractor's total aggregate liability for any claim of any kind arising as a result of or related to this Agreement, whether based in contract, warranty, or any other legal or equitable grounds, shall be limited to the amounts received from GTA for the particular project(s) that form(s) the basis if such claim.
- 5.2 Nothing in this Agreement shall exclude or restrict either party's liability for fraud, death or personal injuries resulting from the negligence of that party or of its employees while acting in the course of their employment.
- 5.3 GTA will indemnify the Contractor and hold the Contractor harmless with respect to any claims or actions instituted by third parties which result from the use by the Contractor of materials furnished by GTA. Information or data obtained by the Contractor from GTA to substantiate claims made in advertising, sales promotion or collateral materials shall be deemed to be "materials" furnished by GTA.
- 5.4 The Contractor will indemnify and hold GTA harmless from all claims, actions, costs and expenses initiated or demanded by third parties as a consequence of any negligence and or breach of contract by the Contractor in the performance of the services under this contract.
- 5.5 GTA shall not be liable for any failure or inability by the Contractor to satisfy any third party obligations as a consequence of any force majeure event, including but not limited to legal or regulatory restrictions implemented as a consequence of COVID-19 or other pandemic event.

6 Confidentiality

- 6.1 The Contractor shall keep confidential all business, products or services information disclosed to it by GTA under the terms of this Agreement together with the provisions of this Agreement.
- 6.2 The Contractor undertakes not to disclose such information to any third party without the prior written consent of GTA unless required by law, regulatory authority or court order but to use such information solely for the purpose for which it was disclosed and never to the detriment of GTA.
- 6.3 No announcements or press releases shall be made by either party in relation to the terms of this Agreement without the prior written consent of the other, such consent not to be unreasonably withheld.
- 6.4 Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions, GTA permits the Contractor to disclose to third parties the Contractor's involvement with GTA in connection with the public relations representation services.

7 Termination

- 7.1 Either party shall have the right to terminate this Agreement at any time on three (3) months' written notice to the other party. During the three (3) month notice period, Contractor will continue to provide the services, and the monthly fee will be due to Contractor in each month during that period.
- 7.2 GTA shall be entitled to terminate this Agreement in the event that the Contractor or its representatives engage in prejudicial conduct which damages or may damage the business of GTA and or the Destination;
- 7.3 The Contractor is conflicted as a result of activities for other clients, which GTA in its reasonable opinion considers competitive to its business.
- 7.4 Either party has the right to terminate this Agreement immediately at any time by giving written notice to the other party in the event that:
  - 7.4.1 the other party commits a material breach of this Agreement which cannot be remedied or a breach capable of being remedied and fails to remedy the breach within thirty (30) days of a written request to do so; or
  - 7.4.2 the other party becomes insolvent or makes any arrangement or composition with or assignment for the benefit of its creditors or if any of the other party's assets are the subject of any form of seizure, or the other party goes into liquidation or a receiver or similar officer is appointed over the other party's assets;
  - 7.4.3 the other party ceases or threatens to cease to carry on business.

8 Consequences of expiry/termination

- 8.1 In the event of the expiry or earlier termination of this Agreement as of the effective date of termination, the Contractor shall cease providing the services or carrying out the public relations representation services, return to GTA all its materials and certify compliance with its obligations under this Agreement in relation to confidentiality.
- 8.2 In the event of expiry of the term or earlier termination of this Agreement, for whatever reason, the following clauses 5, 6 and 10.2 shall survive and remain in force.

9 Force majeure

- 9.1 Except for the obligation to pay money properly due and owing, either party shall be excused from any delay or failure in performance under this Agreement caused by reason of force majeure.
- 9.2 For the purposes of this clause force majeure means the occurrence of an event or contingency beyond the reasonable control of the relevant party including but not limited to failure of performance by the other party due to acts of God, earthquake, pandemic, power failure, labour disputes, riots, legal consents and governmental requirements or regulations.
- 9.3 The party whose performance is affected by the occurrence of the force majeure event shall give notice of such inability to perform to the other party with details of the event and likely duration.
- 9.4 The party whose performance is affected by the occurrence of the force majeure event undertakes during such period of suspension of its obligations to:
- 9.4.1 keep the other fully informed of any developments;
  - 9.4.2 take such action as may be necessary to prevent, limit or mitigate any damage or loss which might arise or be incurred as a result of or in connection with such suspension;
  - 9.4.3 to use its best endeavours to avoid, limit, mitigate or remove the effect of such force majeure event.
- 9.5 If a party is excused performance of substantially all of its obligations under this Agreement for a continuous period of three (3) months then the other party may at any time after such period terminate this Agreement.

10 Miscellaneous

10.1 No Agency/Partnership

Nothing in this Agreement shall constitute any partnership, agency or agreement of employment between the parties.

10.2 Intellectual Property Rights

Except as expressly stated in this Agreement nothing in this Agreement shall grant or be deemed to grant either party any right, title or interest in any intellectual property rights owned by the other party and nothing in this Agreement shall entitle either party to use the other party's logos or trademarks or any other intellectual property rights in any way whatsoever without the prior written consent of the other party other than as provided for under this Agreement. All plans for or related to press, media, advertising, unique campaign ideas, slogans, copy themes, preliminary sketches, layouts, copy, finished artwork, television and radio commercials, research studies, surveys, tests and other advertising material prepared for the GTA or purchased for the GTA's account by the Contractor and paid for by the GTA in accordance with the terms of this Agreement, shall be the exclusive property of the GTA except to the extent that rights therein shall have been reserved by third parties including, but not limited to, actors, photographers and persons engaged or employed by the Contractor to compose the words and/or music of musical composition used on behalf of the GTA. It is agreed that all documents and other materials (including magnetic tapes, disks or other storage media) embodying any confidential information obtained from the GTA and/or developed in accordance with the terms of this Agreement for the exclusive use of the GTA shall be the sole property of the GTA. No copies of the data will be made or distributed to any party other than the GTA except where such party has contributed in a co-operative campaign and the data relates to this specific activity.

10.3 Notice

Notices given under this Agreement must be in writing and may be delivered by hand or by courier to the relevant party's address set out at the top of this Agreement or subsequently formally notified to the other party in writing with reference to this clause and Agreement.

10.4 Variation

Amendments to this Agreement (including any schedules added to this Agreement after the date of this Agreement) shall not be effective unless in writing and signed by authorized signatories on behalf of both parties.

10.5 Waiver

Neither party shall have been deemed to have waived any right under this Agreement by reason of or failure or delay in exercising a right.

10.6 Entire Agreement

This Agreement contains the whole Agreement between the parties relating to its subject matter and supersedes all previous written or oral agreements relating to it.

10.7 Assignment

The Contractor shall not be entitled to charge, mortgage, otherwise encumber, assign, transfer or deal in a manner with any right or obligation under this Agreement without the prior written consent of GTA.

10.8 Headings

The headings to the clauses in this Agreement are for ease of reference only and shall not affect their interpretation.

10.9 Severance

If any provision of this Agreement is declared by any judicial or other competent authority to be void, voidable, illegal or otherwise unenforceable it may be severed from this Agreement and the remaining provisions of this Agreement shall remain in full force and effect. The parties shall seek to amend such provision in such reasonable manner as achieves the intention of the parties without illegality.

10.10 Further Assurance

At any time after the date of this Agreement each of the parties shall execute or procure the execution of such documents and do or procure the doing of such acts and things required for the purpose of giving the full benefit of all the provisions of this Agreement.

10.11 Counterparts

This Agreement may be executed in any number of counterparts, which shall together constitute one Agreement. Any party may enter into this Agreement by signing any such counterpart.

10.12 Third Party Rights

No person who is not a party to this Agreement shall have any rights to enforce its provisions.

11 Law and jurisdiction

This Agreement shall be governed by and construed and interpreted in accordance with the laws of Grenada and shall be subject to the exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of Grenada.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties hereto have caused this Agreement to be signed by their authorized representatives as of the date written above.

SCHEDULE ONE

(PUBLIC RELATIONS REPRESENTATION SERVICES)
